

MOORING APPEAL

SUNDAY.....FEBRUARY 13

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

THE NEVADA EXHIBIT.

It appears from records of the State Board of Agriculture that the Board did not assume the responsibility of erecting a building and making an exhibit at the Midwinter Fair. At the earnest request of several prominent gentlemen of the State the Board agreed to send out circulars inviting the public to contribute to a fund for an exhibit and the members of the Board headed the subscription list with $100 each. It did not assume the management of the Nevada exhibit and it has no authority to pay the expenses of the exhibit only to the extent of the subscriptions received for that purpose. The members in common with other citizens desire to see the State represented at the Exposition and invite all who have not yet contributed and can afford to do so to assist this laudable enterprise. The fact that several counties from which contributions were expected have not responded, limit the funds that can be expended for the Nevada building and exhibit, and subscriptions are acceptable. Only a few of those holding offices and whose incomes have not been affected by the dull times have contributed to the exhibit fund.—Journal.

COAST NEWS.

Spokane wants the next Trans-mississippi convention.

Mme. Mojaska's farm in San Bernardino is offered for sale.

Evans and Morel have not revealed their whereabouts lately. Their last experience with Sheriff Scott has convinced them that they are not so much feared as they supposed.

William Evans, who is charged with killing Messenger Tovey, will be tried again at Jackson March 12, the habeas corpus on the grounds of insanity having been dismissed.

Agent J. S. Cooper, at Montpelier Station, Stanislaus county, while sitting near a window, was shot at by a would-be assassin. Ed. Cottle, a former convict, has been charged with the crime.

Charles Goldsmith, Fred Stuart and Rodehavor and Fitzsimmons, at Auburn, Placer county, have been held in $1,500 bail each to answer the charge of stealing the type of the News at Sacramento.

W. P. Kingston and Frank Harrington, prominent citizens of Edwards, Sonoma county, Wash., attempted to cross Bailey's Bay, fifteen miles wide, during a storm, Sunday night, and have not been heard of since.

J. E. McCarthy, while oiling an upright shaft at the powder works, near Santa Cruz, fell between the shaft and the water main. For an hour he was unable to extricate himself. His right arm and shoulder were burned to a crisp from the friction of the revolving shaft.

The Grand Jury of Santa Cruz county has returned indictments against William Mann for burning the Christian Church and minister's dwelling at Carrizos last June. The trouble all originated in a church war, and the little town is again excited over the latest turn in the affair.

The statement published that a guard had to be placed over the guns of the men at Whipple Barracks, A. T., to prevent them from taking summary vengeance upon one Suffee, who shot a soldier, is emphatically denied by Colonel de Russy, in command. He said no step by enlisted men looking to the resentment of the act of Suffee was at any time contemplated.

Johnny Adams of Yager, Wash., twelve years old, was on his way home from school with his sister when a storm arose and the wind uprooted a big fir tree by the roadside close by the girl. The boy, who was a short distance ahead, saw that the tree was likely to fall upon his sister, and, running back, quickly caught her and pushed her out of the way, but was himself caught by the falling trunk and so badly crushed that he died a few hours afterward.

World's Fair Under Calcium Light

As announced in another column the exhibition and lecture on World's Fair and Midway Plaisance was postponed until Monday evening. The second lecture will be given on Saturday, Feb. 24th. Matinee on Monday afternoon, Feb. 19th, at 4 o'clock. Admission for adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

The views for both lectures are entirely different.

Frederick, Md., February 17.—William Leonard, who shot and killed Jessie Anderson in September last, was hanged in the jail this morning. Before dying Leonard confessed that he had murdered his third wife and her newly born twins. Leonard was a sailor. He killed Anderson because the latter criticised his habit of getting drunk.
